

Protect Your Tuition Investment

Unexpected situations can arise during the school year. To help families manage financial risk, St. John's Northwestern is partnering with TuitionGuard®, a tuition insurance program designed specifically for K–12 schools.

TuitionGuard helps protect your tuition investment if your student must withdraw due to a covered reason.

Why TuitionGuard?

- Protects against unexpected withdrawal events
 - Covers tuition, fees, and room & board
 - Pays the school directly, ensuring your payment plan remains intact
 - Provides peace of mind for families planning ahead
-

What Does TuitionGuard Cover?

Depending on the reason for withdrawal, TuitionGuard may reimburse a portion of unused tuition for:

- Medical withdrawal (illness, injury, or mental health)
- Academic or disciplinary dismissal
- Death of the student or tuition payer
- Involuntary unemployment of the tuition payer
- Job transfer requiring relocation
- Voluntary withdrawal after the initial enrollment period
- Disease contamination events

Coverage ranges from 50%–100% of remaining tuition, depending on the circumstance.

Important Notes

- TuitionGuard is optional for families who pay in one payment (Payment Plan #1) and offered to families as added protection.
- TuitionGuard is mandatory for families who choose one of our three payment plans (Payment Plans # 2 – 4).
- Coverage terms, exclusions, and waiting periods apply.

FAQ

Is TuitionGuard required?

TuitionGuard is optional for families who pay in full. It is mandatory for all families who choose a payment plan.

Who pays for TuitionGuard?

The cost is paid by the family and varies based on tuition amount, tuition plus tuition related fees less scholarships or discounts.